

2008 Summer Music Festival St Columb's Cathedral

Celebrating the Cathedral's 375th Anniversary

1633–2008

St Columb's Cathedral, London Street, Londonderry
028 7126 7313 www.stcolumbscathedralchoir.com

Tuesday 01 July

13:15

Admission Free

The Choir of Christ's College, Cambridge presents a programme of popular choral and organ music.

"worthy of comparison with the best"
Gramophone Magazine

Thursday 10 July

13:15

Admission Free

Mark Chambers (Countertenor) and Ian Mills (Organ). A recital of music spanning 500 years of the European choral tradition. The concert will include J.S. Bach's Cantata no. 170, along with music by Arvo Pärt and Petr Eben.

Monday 21 July

20:00

*Admission: £20 (£10) at the door,
or online: www.ticketmaster.ie*

The Berlin Master Soloists were founded in 2007. Its members are among the most sought-after musicians in Berlin's renowned orchestras. Tonight's programme includes music by Vivaldi, Mozart and Tchaikovsky.

Thursday 24 July

13:15

Admission Free

Travis Baker (Organ) studied with Dame Gillian Weir. A native of Melbourne, Australia, Travis is now resident in the UK. He is Organist of St Michael's Church, Highgate and an accompanist at Armagh's annual Charles Wood Summer School.

Sunday 20 July

20:00

Admission: £10 (£5)

International concert organist and composer David Briggs returns for his third visit to St Columb's Cathedral. Fresh from recitals at Notre Dame and the Royal Albert Hall, David will give a short recital of popular organ music on the Cathedral's Wells-Kennedy Organ; he will then display his extraordinary talent for improvisation by accompanying a silent movie. An opportunity not to be missed.